Elks Launch 'No Talent' Hunt for Annual Benefit

A "no talent" hunt has been launched by members of the Torrance BPO Elks to fill the cast for their annual "Elks-A-Poppin" show scheduled to be presented Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 12 and 13 at the Torrance High School auditorium.

A casting party for the spectacular show of songs, gags, and dances has been scheduled at the Elks Lodge, 1953 W. Carson St., at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Requirement: no talent, no voice, no dancing ability — just personality, director Randy LaFerr emphasizes. Persons interested in participating in the zany, two-hour show don't even need to be members of the Elks, he said.

More than 150 men and women of the Elks and others will be cast in the fast moving extravaganza — a show designed to appeal to all ages of theater-goers.

Proceeds of the annual affair are earmarked for the various charity programs of the lodge, according to Marvin Pike, exalted ruler.

"Members of the Torrance Elks are giving in time and energy so they may raise funds for our charity program," Pike said.

Tickets may be purchased now from any Elk or at the door on show nights.
